

TO BE A HUMMER.

Republican Ratification Meeting
To-morrow Evening.

CONGRESSMAN DANFORD WRITES

Accepting the invitation of the Committee in Charge of the Affairs—Other Speakers will be Present, Including, Possibly, Senator Elkins and Congressman Stone and Daisel—Senator Whitaker will Preside—List of the Vice-Presidents.

That to-morrow night's ratification of the nomination of McKinley and Hobart by the Republicans of Wheeling will be an occasion to be remembered as one of the notable events of the campaign now about to be inaugurated in West Virginia, there is no doubt. The people of Wheeling, sound money Democrats as well as Republicans, are fully alive to the occasion and will undoubtedly throng the Grand Opera House to such an extent that an overflow meeting will be necessary. Yesterday the secretary of the ratification meeting committee, Mr. John V. Kindelberger, received a letter from Congressman Lorenzo Danford, of the over-the-river district, in which he accepts the invitation to be one of the speakers to-morrow night. It is probable, too, that two and possibly all of the others invited will be present, including Senator Elkins and Congressman Stone, of Pennsylvania, both of whom were leaders in the house and campaign orators of note. The committee has named Senator N. E. Whitaker as chairman of the meeting. The vice presidents are invited to occupy seats on the stage. The roll:

President—N. E. Whitaker.

A POLITICAL POTPOURI.

Republican Congressional Convention

Called—County Primaries.

Yesterday Chairman H. C. Richards, of the Republican congressional committee of the First district, issued a call for the Republican congressional convention. The date is July 21 and the place Charleston. The date by the way, is the day preceding the state Republican convention at Parkersburg. The usual reduced rates on the railroads will be secured and announced in due time. The convention will be of very short duration. After the resolutions are passed there will be very little to do—simply re-nominate Captain Dovenor by acclamation and adjourn.

The Ohio County Republican Club executive committee in another column announces arrangements for the primaries and suggestion meetings. The primary election will be held Saturday, July 11, for the purpose of choosing from each district six delegates to the state convention, six delegates to the First district congressional convention and six delegates to the county convention, the date of which has not yet been named by the committee. The county convention will name four candidates for house of delegates and appoint one senatorial and one judicial conference from people in the district. The suggestion meetings for the purpose of preparing names of persons to be voted for at the primaries will be held on Monday, June 23, at 8 p. m., except in Liberty and Richland districts, where the hour is fixed at 5 p. m.

SONS OF VETERANS

Will Give a Musical and Literary Entertainment This Evening.

General U. S. Grant camp No. 17, Sons of Veterans, will give a musical and literary entertainment this evening at Odd Fellows hall. A splendid programme will be rendered and refreshments will be served. There will also be dancing and a general good social time. The admission fee will be 25 cents, which will include the ice cream and cake which will be served. The proceeds of the entertainment will be applied to the purchase of arm equipments for the camp, something which is needed to enable the boys to turn out with the G. A. R. posts on such occasions, such as funerals, decoration exercises, etc., when the Sons of Veterans are in demand to act as a firing squad.

The object is a worthy one and the members of the camp cordially invite all their friends and the friends of the old soldiers to join with them in making the entertainment a success.

THE ELKS' OUTING

At Wheeling Park was an Unqualified Success—An Immense Crowd Heard the Band and Vocal Concert.

The Elks' outing at Wheeling park Casino last evening was one of those successes that only come by untiring effort on the part of the projectors. The Wheeling lodge of Elks have given many entertainments which have always been enjoyed by the public, but none that has met with such general approval as the one that took place last evening.

The audience was unexpectedly large, comfortably filling the large auditorium. It was an appreciative gathering if the critic takes into consideration the hearty demonstrations of approval that greeted each number rendered. The Grand Band, of Ohio, can return home with new laurels added to those gained in other cities. It is a magnificent organization of musical artists. It met with instant favor from the opening piece, a selection from Verdi's "Aida," and warmed the hearts of its admirers throughout the programme until it fairly captivated the audience by the closing number, "The International Congress," which was well adapted to reconcile all natural contrasts and enmities by combining all the national anthems in a harmonious ensemble, where the conductor's powerful wand dissolves all disharmonies and musical strife into one great chord of harmony and lasting peace.

The programme rendered was as follows:

PART FIRST.
March—"The Magnificent." Will A. Hoskins
Selection from "Aida." Verdi
Vocal Solo—"Sacred is the Weeping." Von Suppe
Miss Mamie D. Grubb
Waltz—"Souvenir Des Bains de Mer." Bousquet
(Solo for Reed Section)
Fantasia—"Lohengrin." Wagner
Fifteen minutes intermission.
PART SECOND.
Evening Call—"Scenes Descriptive of a Young Man's Career in the Girl." D. W. Reeves
Vocal Solo—"Selections." Mrs. Milton L. Hanauer
"Leona." Leo Zimmerman
Trombone Solo—"Philomena and Baucis." Gounod
Vocal Solo—"The Song of the Gounod." Mr. H. W. Hughes
"Old Kentucky Home." Dalby
(Variations from Different Sections).
"The Star Spangled Banner." J. Ph. Sousa
Songs of all Nations, with grand finale, "The Star Spangled Banner."
(Arranged for Reed Section by Wagner)
Prof. Hermann Schockey Accompanist.
Mr. Leo Zimmerman's solo on the trombone stamped that gentleman as an artist in his line. Seldom has a Wheeling audience heard such artistic performances on that rather difficult instrument. Mr. Zimmerman was so eloquent that the rule of no encores had to be violated.
Miss Mamie Grubb was very acceptable to the audience. Her "Sacred is the Weeping," was very sympathetically sung, and was loudly applauded at the close. Miss Grubb made a distinct success and was warmly congratulated by her friends. She was recalled and presented with a beautiful floral acknowledgment.

The violin obligato of Professor Schockey and the piano accompaniment of Mr. Joseph Rhees, were the pleasurable features that contributed to Miss Grubb's success.
Miss Milton L. Hanauer, a new face to Wheeling musical audiences, rendered her number in a most pleasing manner, and shared with Miss Grubb the honors of the evening.
Mr. H. W. Hughes was in good form, and his powerful but well controlled voice, was heard to the best advantage in "The Song of the Gounod" from the Opera of "Hillemont and Bancelis."
The intelligent and sympathetic work of Professor Hermann Schockey added much to the success of the soloists.
The park was in its brightest summer dress, and the scene presented after the electric lights were turned on was a delight to the eye. Colonel Augustus Roff and his assistants have reason to be proud of the park.

Captain R. B. Dovenor in the early part of the programme appeared on the stage and on behalf of the Wheeling lodge of Elks thanked the people for their patronage. He very briefly told the object of the Elks' brotherhood, kindness to all. There is one thing that will linger in the memory of those who attended the concert, and that was "Old Kentucky Home," and Captain Dovenor's speech.

The Knicker's Club met in the bowling alley, but owing to the absence of the president, adjourned until Friday evening.

The committee of Wheeling Lodge that had charge of the concert was composed of Messrs. E. B. Franzheim, Charles C. Schmidt, C. R. Tracy, Jacob W. Grubb and Nate Fied. To their executive ability is due much of the credit of last night's success.

Along the Landing.

The packet for Pittsburgh to-morrow is the Ben Hur.

Trade along the wharf was good yesterday.

The Ruth leaves for Charleston to-morrow morning at 6 o'clock.

The Enos Taylor left yesterday afternoon at 2:30 for Steuensville with a fine trip, her first trip in this trade.

The Keystone State is to-day's packet for Cincinnati. The ever popular "Charley" Knox is in command.

The river marks last night at 6 o'clock indicated 5 feet 7 inches and slowly rising. Temperature warm and stormy.

An Interesting Case.

The Pittsburgh & Cincinnati packet line and Captains John K. Booth, of the Liberty, and Kimpel, of the Ben Hur, have combined to test the validity of a Wheeling city ordinance. The ordinance forbids the use of steamboats in the side of the steamboatmen for a long time. It provides that all boats shall be muzzled while steamboats are lying at the public landing. This was done at the instance of the river-front hotel people, whose guests' slumbers were interrupted by the noise of the lower deck passengers of the steamboats. In other cities, however, the muzzling of animals is now done away with through the efforts of the Humane Society. But here in Wheeling up to the present time, the Humane people have not done anything. The steamboatmen object to the ordinance, because of the danger of killing the cattle, who breathe with difficulty when muzzled. Then, too, the railroads are not required to muzzle cattle when their trains pass through the city, and the steamboatmen say it is a case of discrimination in addition to the humane aspect of the case. The steamboat interest, as stated, has combined to fight the matter. Recently Captain Knox, of the Keystone State, was arrested for this offense. At the request of his attorney, Mayor Caldwell raised his fine to $15, so that an appeal can be taken. The services of Judge Thayer Melvin were secured and in a short time the case will figure in the circuit court on an appeal. The steamboatmen are confident they will win, and say they will not give up until the highest judicial tribunal in the state has given its decision.

HANDSOME Jewel Buttons at TAYLOR'S.

Induced by the use of coca, opiate or narcotic compounds is bad, decidedly bad. They undermine health and shatter the constitution and the patient is steadily growing into a worse condition—often resulting in the terrible slavery and misery of the cocaine and opium habit. Sleep induced by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla does not perhaps come as quickly, but it comes more surely and more permanently through nature's great restoring and rejuvenating channel—purified, vitalized and enriched blood. This feeds the nerves with life-giving energy and builds up the system and constitution from the very foundation of all health and life—the blood—pure, rich, red blood.
